How You Will Receive Your Documents
As part of our continuous improvement programme we have introduced a digital document management system. This system digitally files all copy documentations such as invoices, and order acknowledgements, etc, therefore when you telephone us with your request for a copy document we can obtain the digital copy and e-mail or fax you the document during your call. Our objective is to resolve your enquiry in the most timely and efficient mannor possible. All order acknowledgements, statements and invoices will preferably be e-mailed or alternatively faxed to your company. The system will enable us to send each type of document to a different target, ie you may wish for order acknowledgements to be passed to one e-mail address, statements sent to a different e-mail address and invoices to a third. If, however, you do not have e-mail addresses available, please let us have the relevant fax numbers instead. Delivery notes will continue to be sent by post.
